MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

All requests should be made via e-mail to the Sparks Communications Department at least 24 hours PRIOR to the game you wish to cover. NO CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED ON GAME DAY. Please make certain all requests for credentials are confirmed by Sparks Public Relations prior to arriving at STAPLES Center. Credentials may be picked up at the primary entrance adjacent to 11th street (between Figueroa and Georgia streets) beginning two hours prior to game time. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times and are non-transferrable.

CHICK HEARN PRESS ROOM

The Chick Hearn Press Room is located near the primary media entrance adjacent to 11th street on the Event Level. The stairway from the primary entrance as well as the elevator leads directly to the press room.

PRE AND POST GAME INTERVIEWS

In accordance with WNBA policy, the Sparks and the visitors' locker rooms will be open to members of the media for 30 minutes ending 1 hour before the start of the game (e.g., media access shall be granted from 6:00-6:30 p.m. for a 7:30 p.m. game).

Locker rooms are re-opened to the media after the game following a 10-minute cooling down period and will remain open for 30 minutes. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the press with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS OR PERSONAL PHOTOS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIOD.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS

Game notes, rosters and stats are available in the press room two hours prior to game time. Statistics are distributed to the working media at the conclusion of each quarter as well as first half boxes and final boxes. Post-game notes and quotes are distributed following the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Limited space is available for still photographers along each baseline, with exact locations to be determined before game day. ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED. Photographers must stay in their designated areas, and are asked to be considerate of print media and fans directly in their viewing area. All photographers who are sharing a lane and not on the photo lane during a specific quarter must stay in the Chick Hearn Press Room unless otherwise directed by PR.

MEALS

Beverages and snacks will be available in the Chick Hearn Press Room before and during the game.

LOS ANGELES SPARKS | 2016 MEDIA GUIDE

OWNERSHIP

EARVIN “MAGIC” JOHNSON

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Having left the basketball court for the boardroom, Earvin “Magic” Johnson has successfully parlayed his skills and tenacity from the court into the business world as Chairman and CEO of Magic Johnson Enterprises (MJE). MJE provides high-quality products and services that focus primarily on ethnically diverse and underserved urban communities. With his continued love of basketball, Johnson is utilizing those same skills and bringing his winning spirit in his recent role as the President of Basketball Operations for the Los Angeles Lakers, working closely with ownership throughout all areas of the franchise.

Still a commanding presence in popular culture, Johnson made history in 2012 when he became co-owner of MLB’s Los Angeles Dodgers. He also co-owns the Los Angeles Sparks of the WNBA, Major League Soccer’s Los Angeles Football Club, and eSports franchise Team Liquid. He continues to expand his influence through his many businesses that include: EquiTrust Life Insurance Company, ASPIRE, an African-American television network and SodexoMAGIC, a food service and facilities management company.

The Lansing native is constantly evolving and remaining relevant in a dynamic digital age by broadening his scope into infrastructure and technology. Through a newly formed fund, Johnson is investing millions of dollars on infrastructure improvement in the United States. He is also one of the leading investors in a number of minority-owned tech companies that include Uncharted Power, a company that uses their renewable kinetic energy solutions to generate clean, consistent, and cost-efficient power for communities, facilities, and the Internet of Things; Shot-Tracker, a company that makes wearable technology for basketball players that helps track player and ball movement; Jopwell, a diversity and hiring recruiting platform; Walker & Co Brands, a company that develops health and beauty products for people of color; and MiTú, the Latino-fueled media brand and digital network that connects thousands of Latin content creators with viewers around the world.

Johnson, who serves as Chairman and Founder of the Magic Johnson Foundation, also continues his commitment to transform Urban America through HIV/AIDS Awareness and Educational Programs. Remaining true to his humble Lansing beginnings, he is unwaveringly dedicated to working with major corporations and partners to bring jobs and high quality products and services to underserved communities.

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Mr. Walter is the Chairman and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Mr. Walter is also Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board and Executive Committee of Guggenheim Capital, LLC. Mr. Walter serves as a trustee/director of several organizations including the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation, Security Benefit Corporation and the EquiTrust Life holding company. He is also a controlling shareholder of Delaware Life Holdings. Mr. Walter grew up in Iowa and received a B.S. from Creighton University and a J.D. from Northwestern University.

TODD BOEHLY

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Todd Boehly is an owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Chairman, CEO and controlling shareholder of Eldridge Industries, a private investment firm that operates a portfolio of diversified businesses across several industries.

Prior to founding Eldridge, Mr. Boehly was the President of Guggenheim Partners, where he launched their credit investing business and later assumed responsibilities for the asset management business. Mr. Boehly received his B.B.A. from the College of William & Mary and studied at the London School of Economics.

In addition to being the Chairman and CEO of Eldridge, Mr. Boehly is a member of the Cain International Board, and serves as a trustee or board member of several other organizations. He is an owner of the Los Angeles Sparks.

ROBERT L. PATTON, JR.

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Robert L. Patton, Jr. is a partner of Guggenheim Baseball Management. He became part owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 30, 2012. Patton resides in Fort Worth, Texas, where he was born and raised. Patton principally operates oil and gas properties in Texas and Kansas and has additional investments in many other sectors, including ranching and insurance. Patton serves on the Board of Security Benefit Corporation and the Advisory Council of the University of Texas College of Liberal Arts.

Patton received a B.B.A. from the University of Texas as well as a J.D. from St. Mary's University and LLM from Southern Methodist University.

OWNERSHIP

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Stan Kasten became president and CEO of the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 30, 2012. For more than three decades, Kasten has been a highly-respected sports figure and has developed a reputation for creating winning sports franchises.

In 1999, Kasten became the first sports figure to hold the title of president of three different teams in three different major sports simultaneously. He accomplished this unique feat with Major League Baseball's Atlanta Braves, the National Basketball Association's Atlanta Hawks and the National Hockey League's Atlanta Thrashers. Kasten's professional career is highlighted by the Braves' 1995 World Championship. During his tenure, the Braves and Hawks made a combined 30 post-season appearances and claimed 15 division titles, including 12 in a row in the Braves' unprecedented run from 1991-2003. He was president of the Washington Nationals from 2006-10, where he worked to re-energize a dormant baseball fan base and simultaneously established a crown jewel franchise in Washington, D.C.

Kasten has been a member of numerous MLB, NBA and NHL ownership committees during his professional career, including NBA committees on marketing, player pensions and expansion and the NBA Board of Governors, MLB's owners negotiating committee and chairman of the Player Personal Development Committee, and the NHL's Board of Governors and its executive committee. He is also a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Throughout his impressive sports career, Kasten has relied on three pillars - scouting and player development, enhancing the fan experience and community outreach - to establish franchises built for long-term success on and off the field. In 1979, at age 27, Kasten became the youngest general manager in NBA history with the Hawks. He held the position until 1990. Kasten became the Hawks' president in 1986. During his lengthy tenure in the Hawks' front office, Kasten became the first -- and only -- NBA executive to win back-to-back Executive of the Year awards in 1986-87. With the help of future NBA Hall of Famer Dominique Wilkins, Kasten was able to build Atlanta into a perennial playoff contender, posting four consecutive 50-win seasons from 1986-89, and set franchise attendance records. In the 1990s, Kasten guided Atlanta to a stretch of seven consecutive playoff appearances, including three 50-win seasons.

Kasten also became president of the Braves in 1986. From 1987-2003, the Braves won more games than any other team in MLB. As president of the Braves, Kasten helped assemble talented teams that consistently competed for a world championship. Led by manager Bobby Cox, the Braves teams of that era were built around a deep pitching staff that featured Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine, Steve Avery and John Smoltz. The cornerstone of the Braves' lineup was All-Star third baseman Chipper Jones. From 1991-2005, the Braves won 14 consecutive division titles, five National League pennants and the 1995 World Series. In 1999, when the NHL awarded Atlanta an expansion team, Kasten added the title of president of the Thrashers, as well as chairman of the newly constructed Philips Arena. He was also involved in the design and construction of Turner Field. Kasten held all three positions until 2003, when he stepped down.

On Jan. 24, 2014, Kasten was elected to the LA84 Foundation's board of directors. LA84 is the legacy of the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles and primary funder of youth athletics in Southern California. Four days later, on Jan. 28, he was named 2013 Sports Executive of the Year by the Los Angeles Sports Council.

A native of Lakewood, N.J., Kasten is a graduate of New York University and Columbia University Law School. Kasten and his wife, Helen, have four children: Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

PRESIDENT/COO

CHRISTINE N. SIMMONS

President & Chief Operations Officer

Christine Simmons is President & Chief Operations Officer of the three-time WNBA Champion Los Angeles Sparks.

Simmons is entering her fifth season with the team and the fourth in her official capacity. She leads all aspects of the team's business operations including ticket and sponsorship sales and service, marketing, game operations, communications, community relations and finance. Under her leadership the team has seen a 50% increase in ticket sales, doubled ratings on Spectrum SportsNet and impacted nearly 70,000 lives through community programs.

Prior to joining the Sparks, she was an Executive Vice President with Magic Johnson Enterprises where she would evaluate investment opportunities and was responsible for business development. With over a decade of leadership experience in creating strategic alliances, leading business development and driving corporate initiatives,

Christine has worked with many Fortune 500 corporations and multi-million dollar companies and has been on the business side of entertainment for over a decade working for organizations such as Disney and NBCUniversal.

A proud UCLA graduate, she serves as President of the Board of the UCLA Alumni Association and was named to the University of California President's list of 2016 Remarkable Women of UC. Next year she will serve as a Regent Designant for the UC Regent Board.

She is an active member of the Los Angeles community, serving on the Board of Directors for the LA Sports Council, the Positive Coaching Alliance and formerly served on the NBA's Global Inclusion Council. Her dedication and passion for giving back has earned her a number of honors including: the LA Business Journal's 2016 & 2017 list of 500 most influential people in Los Angeles and a 2017 WISE LA Woman of Inspiration. She also volunteers for Better Futures for Thomazeau, a small, grass roots non profit that provides aid to Haiti.

EXECUTIVE VP/GM

PENNY TOLER

Executive Vice President & General Manager

Penny Toler has had many shining moments throughout her 21 years with the Sparks franchise as a player, General Manager and even interim head coach in 2014. She has a keen eye for talent and year after year has assembled world class Los Angeles Sparks teams that have earned three WNBA Championships under her leadership in 2001, 2002 and last season 2016. Penny is the winningest and longest tenure GM in the WNBA league. After losing nearly half of the 2016 season championship team (Evgeniia Belyakova, Ana Dabovic, Jelena Dujic, Ann Wauters) to oversee commitments. Toler has once again kept the team at the top of the leader board by restructuring over half the 2016 team by adding key players like Odyssey Sims, Riquana Williams, Tiffany Jackson Jones, Maimouna Diarra, and Sydney Wiese (1st Round Draft pick.) Furthermore, with the unexpected free agency departure of Kristi Toliver, Penny didn't panic. She quickly orchestrated a trade to acquire one of the best point guards in the WNBA in Odyssey Sims, via a trade acquisition with the Dallas Wings giving the Sparks arguably one of the best front/back court combos in all the WNBA and simultaneously in that same trade she acquired a first-round draft pick for the 2018 Draft so that the Sparks could continue to build for the future. Chemistry is crucial in assembling a competitive team. Despite not having any of the players from the 2016 Championship team available during training camp, Penny with her depth of experience at judging talent was still able to acquire the right chemistry of players to keep the Sparks at the top of the leader board. This year marks the 16th playoff appearance in her 18th year as General Manager of the Sparks. Penny has re-signed all the Sparks core players (Candace Parker, Jantel Lavender and Nneka Ogumike) in the off season to multi-year deals to stay with the Sparks team, ensuring the Sparks will be competitive for many years to come and compete for future WNBA Championships.

In 1997, Toler scored the first basket in the WNBA and in 2014, she became the only female in professional sports to have consecutively been a player, executive and head coach for the same team when she took over the reins as head coach midway through the season.

Toler stepped in as head coach with 12 games remaining in the 2014 regular season, guiding the Sparks to a 6 - 6 (.500) record and leading the Sparks to its record-setting 14th WNBA postseason appearance. Following the end of the 2014 season, she hung up her coaching board to return to her dual role as general manager/executive vice president heading into the 2015 season.

Toler has served as the general manager/executive vice president with the team since 2012, and as general manager/vice president since her retirement as a player in November 1999. Her skills at roster-building and keen sense of basketball operations are complemented by her years as a professional athlete, making her one of the most respected general managers in the game.

In her 16 seasons as general manager, Toler has guided the team to two WNBA titles (2001,2002), three conference championships (2001-2003) and to 14 postseason appearances (1999-06 and 2008-10, 2012-14). Named general manager just prior to the 2000 season, she compiled back-to-back WNBA Championship teams two seasons into her tenure, to give Los Angeles titles in 2001 and 2002. Among all professional men and women sports leagues, Toler became the fastest person to go from a player to general manager status to winning a championship in two years.

As a player, she scored the first basket in WNBA history on June 21, 1997 vs. the New York Liberty, and finished the inaugural season as the Sparks' second leading scorer with 13.1 points per game. The following season, she shot an impressive 41.7% from three-point range to rank second in the WNBA while finishing fifth in the league in assists at 4.8 per game.

After three seasons, she hung up her basketball shoes following the 1999 season with WNBA career averages of 10.0 points, 2.8 rebounds and 4.0 assists in 88 games played. She retired from playing professional basketball with a combined 13 years overseas/WNBA experience. In addition to the Sparks, she was also a member of the USA Basketball Women's Competition Committee where she assisted in the selection of three gold medal winning teams: the 2002 World University Championship games, the 2004 Olympic team and the 2008 Olympic team. In an effort to advance the women's game, she was also a strong advocate in implementing the 24- second shot clock and turning the two, 20-minute halves into four, 10-minute quarters.

In 2006, she again made history when the Sparks retired #11 in recognition of her playing and management career, becoming the first female athlete to have her jersey retired at STAPLES Center.

Toler graduated from Long Beach State University in 1989 where she set several school records including career assists (513) and career free-throw percentage (.795). A member of two Final Four teams, (1987 and 1988) under Coach Joan Bonvicini, she earned Kodak All-America honors, Pacific Coast Athletic Association Player of the Year and Co-Big West Player of the Year recognition in 1988 and 1989. She scored 2,193 points in three seasons of play at LBSU (sitting out the 1985-86 season after transferring from San Diego State). Toler's impressive collegiate career was recognized with her induction into the LBSU Hall of Fame in 1995 and a jersey retirement ceremony in 2007 by the Forty-Niner Athletics Department.

Beyond the WNBA, Toler combined her sense of community and business savvy and began her "Points from Penny" program in 1998. The goal of the program is to teach youth in the Los Angeles and Las Vegas areas the fundamentals of basketball, the importance of teamwork and the value of competition. The program was nominated for several awards during its tenure including: the American Express Entrepreneurial Spirit Award. Since that time she has focused on bringing the same type of community-oriented programs to the Sparks front office.

Toler's hobbies include going to the movies, getting interior design tips from HGTV and working with underprivileged youth. She also sits on the Long Beach State Advisory Committee for the sports management program. Raised in Washington D.C. with three brothers and four sisters, Toler currently resides in Los Angeles.

HEAD COACH

Head Coach

On Jan. 5, 2015, Agler became the 12th head coach in Los Angeles Sparks history, bringing with him over 30 years of head-coaching experience, including 11 in the WNBA. In his first season with LA, Agler led the Sparks to a league-best 15th postseason appearance. Just one year later he led them to a 26-8 regular season mark and the 2016 WNBA championship, the third league title in the franchise's history.

Along the way, three Sparks players earned major WNBA awards in 2016 -- Nneka Ogwumike (league MVP); Candace (Finals MVP); and Jantel Lavender (Sixth Woman of the Year). The 2016 championship, when coupled with the one captured by his Seattle Storm in 2010, made Agler the first head coach in WNBA history to guide two different franchises to a title.

The all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball history in the U.S. with 296 regular-season victories, Agler enters the 2018 campaign with 224 wins as a WNBA head coach and 72 from his tenure in the ABL.

Immediately prior to joining the Sparks, Agler spent seven seasons (2008-14) at the helm of the Storm, guiding Seattle to the playoffs in each of his first six campaigns and compiling an overall regular-season record of 136-102 (.571) during his tenure there. In 2010, when Agler was recognized as the WNBA Coach of the Year, his Storm -- led by league MVP Lauren Jackson and All-Star Sue Bird -- captured the franchise's second WNBA title with an impressive regular 28-6 season record and a 7-0 run through the postseason.

Agler first joined the WNBA as Head Coach and GM of the expansion Minnesota Lynx from 1999-2002, where he compiled a 42-54 (.438) record. Following that, Agler was an assistant with the Phoenix Mercury in 2004 before spending 2005-07 as an assistant with the San Antonio Stars.

Agler's move to the WNBA's Lynx in 1999 followed three seasons as head coach of the ABL's Columbus Quest from 1996-1999, when his teams compiled a 72-18 regular-season record and a 10-4 mark in the postseason. Agler led the Quest to back-to-back ABL championships in 1997 and 1998 and was the ABL Coach of the Year for the 1996-97 campaign.

Agler spent 15 seasons coaching in the collegiate ranks, including 13 seasons as a head coach. He posted an impressive collegiate record of 248-135 (.648 winning percentage). From 1993-96 he served as the head women's basketball coach at Kansas State. In 1998, Agler took over as the head women's coach at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. In five seasons at UMKC, Agler was 85-54 and took the Kangaroos from a 9-16 record in 1988-89 to four straight winning seasons. Under his direction, UMKC led the NCAA in scoring defense three straight seasons (1990-93). In 1991, UMKC set an NCAA record, allowing just 51.8 points per game.

As the head women's basketball coach at Northeast Oklahoma A&M Junior College from 1984-88, Agler compiled a 124-42 record. In 1985-86, NEO A&M ranked second nationally at 30-2.

Agler attended Wittenberg University (Springfield, Oh.), where he starred on the basketball team, leading the Tigers to their only NCAA Division III basketball championship in basketball as a freshman. He started all 112 games during his career, leaving the school as the all-time assist leader (481). Agler was the MVP of the Ohio Athletic Conference and first-team All-America as a senior. In 1995, he was inducted into the Wittenberg Hall of Honor.

COACHING STAFF

TONYA EDWARDS

Assistant Coach

In her second season as an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Sparks, Tonya Edwards works primarily with the team's perimeter players and is also responsible for scouting opponents and preparing practice and game plans. Edwards brings 19 years of coaching experience to the WNBA.

Edwards is reunited with head coach Brian Agler whom she played for in both the ABL (Columbus Quest) and the WNBA (Minnesota Lynx). Drafted in 1999 by Agler, then head coach of the Lynx, she was named a WNBA All-Star as a rookie, and went on to play five seasons in the league with Minnesota, Phoenix, and Charlotte before finishing her playing career overseas.

Edwards served as the head coach of Alcorn State University (2008-15), where she led the Lady Braves to the SWAC Championship game in 2012 and was named 2010-11 SWAC Coach of the Year. Prior to Alcorn State, Edwards served as an assistant coach at the University of Detroit-Mer- cy (2006-08), the Chicago Blaze (2005) of the National Women's Basketball League and two seasons at Mott Community College. (1990-92).

Her coaching career began at her alma mater, Northwestern Community High School, where she earned a 78-23 record in four seasons (1991-94), winning a state title in 1993 while subsequently being named the Michigan High School Coach of the Year.

Edwards attended the University of Tennessee (1986-1990), where she won two national championships with the Lady Vols (1987, 1989) and was named most valuable player in the 1987 NCAA Tournament. She finished her career with 1,309 points and was inducted into the UT Hall of Fame in 2006.

BOBBIE KELSEY

Assistant Coach

Bobbie Kelsey, enters her first season as an WNBA assistant coach. Kelsey was named as a Los Angeles Sparks assistant coach on April 3, 2018. Coach Kelsey has been working with developing guards Odyssey Sims and Riquana Williams and is also responsible for scouting opponents and preparing game plans. Kelsey brings 20 years of college coaching experience to the WNBA.

Kelsey's first head coaching job was as the head coach for Wisconsin from 2011-2016. In 2011, Bobbie Kelsey returned to her alma mater, Stanford University and spent four seasons (2007-2011) as an assistant coach under Hall of Fame head coach Tara VanDerveer. Prior to returning to Stanford, Kelsey spent three seasons at Virginia Tech, helping guide the Hokies to three consecutive postseason appearances, including NCAA Tournament berths in 2005 and 2006. From 2002-04, Kelsey served as an assistant coach at Western Carolina. In addition, Kelsey spent the 2000-02 seasons as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator at Evansville. Prior to her time with the Aces, she was an assistant coach at the University of Florida for two seasons where she was responsible for film exchange, scouting and coaching the posts. Kelsey served as a practice player for the Atlanta Glory of the American Basketball League for one year and as an assistant at Boise State in 1996-97.

Kelsey was a four-year letter winner at Stanford from 1992-96 and graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications. As a player, Kelsey helped the Cardinal to three Final Four appearances in five years, including the 1992 NCAA championship. In 2010, she earned her master's degree in Sports Leadership from Duquesne University's School of Leadership and Professional Advancement.

Bryce Agler

Assistant Coach

Bryce Agler enters his third season with the Sparks as a Player Development Coach. In his role with the Sparks, Agler assists with the team's scouting efforts, practice preparation and pre-/post-practice player development.

In addition to his work with Los Angeles, Agler also has basketball experience at the collegiate level, most recently as the video coordinator for the women's basketball program at Southern Methodist University (2017-18). Prior to SMU, Agler worked as an assistant coach for the men's basketball program at his alma mater, Wittenberg University (2016-17), and as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for women's basketball at Eastern Illinois University (2014-16).

Agler graduated from Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, in 2014 with a B.A. in Communications and a minor in Sports Management. While studying at Wittenberg, Agler worked as a student coach with the men's basketball team, assisting in on-court drills during practices and individual workouts.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Samuelson played collegiately at Stanford University. Samuelson averaged career highs in points (12.4), rebounds (3.4) and assists (2.7) and personal bests in field goal percentage (.482) and 3-point field goal percentage (.485) as a senior at Stanford in 2016-17 in leading the Cardinal to the program's 13th Final Four appearance. She finished second in the nation in 3-point field goal percentage, a mark good for second in school single-season history and fourth in Pac-12 history. Her 96 made 3-pointers tied Jeanette Pohlen for first in Stanford history and fifth in Pac-12 history and her 249 career 3-pointers are third in the school record books. A career 44.3 percent 3-point shooter, Samuelson is second at Stanford to Jennifer Azzi, tied for fourth in Pac-12 annals and 19th in NCAA history. She ended with the best career 3-point percentage for any Pac-12 player since 1990. Samuelson was invited to the Sparks camp in 2017 before suffering an injury. She returned to the Sparks camp in 2018 after playing for Vigarano in Italy, averaging 14.8 PPG and 4.9 RPG, and earned a spot on the Sparks opening day roster. She is also a member of Great Britain's national team.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

Drafted by the Los Angeles Sparks on May 19, 2018. Samuelson played the first four games with the Sparks, but was released on May 29, 2018 when center Jantel Lavender returned from her overseas commitments. In four games, Samuelson averaged 3.5 points per game and shot 40 percent from 3-point range. She was resigned on June 24, 2018.

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE (ITA-

Averaged 14.8 points per game during the 2017-2018 season abroad in Italy for Meccanica Nova Vigarano. Samuelson shot an efficient 39.2% for 3-pointers and 88.1% from the line.

SPARKS HISTORY

LOS ANGELES SPARKS | 2018 MEDIA GUIDE

SPARKS TIMELINE

June 21, 1997: The Los Angeles Sparks and the New York Liberty tip-off the first WNBA game at the Great Western Forum in Los Angeles in front of a crowd of 14,284. Sparks Guard Penny Toler scores the league's first basket at 19:01.

June 19, 1998: Sparks center Lisa Leslie sets a WNBA record by pulling down 21 rebounds in the Sparks victory over the New York Liberty.

June 21, 1998: Sparks center Lisa Leslie notches her seventh straight double-double, setting a WNBA record.

1997

August 24, 1997: Los Angeles finishes its first season 14-14 and in second place in the Western Conference. Lisa Leslie finishes the season as the league leader in rebounds per game (9.5), while Haixia Zheng is a WNBA Peak Performer for her league-leading .618 field goal percentage. Zheng also wins the Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award.

1998

August 19, 1998: The Sparks finish the season 12-18 in a year of individual improvement, as Lisa Leslie increases her scoring average from 15.9 to 19.6 and her rebounding rate from 9.5 to 10.2. Tamecka Dixon also sees a rise in her scoring from 11.9 to 16.2.

SPARKS TIMELINE

August 30, 1999: The Sparks complete a season of firsts, finishing with its first winning record and a franchise-best 20 wins. Los Angeles also wins its first playoff series, knocking off the Sacramento Monarchs before falling to the eventual WNBA Champion Houston Comets in the Western Conference Finals.

August 20, 2000: The Sparks win a franchise-record 28 games, including two 12-game win streaks. After sweeping Phoenix in the first round of the playoffs, though, they fall once again in the Western Conference Finals to the eventual WNBA Champion Houston Comets.

November 12, 1999: Penny Toler retires and becomes the first WNBA player in league history to go from player to front office executive, becoming General Manager of Player Personnel.

SPARKS TIMELINE

June 5, 2001: After four seasons and a 45-17 record at the Forum, the Sparks begin play at STAPLES Center, located in the heart of Downtown Los Angeles. Los Angeles beats Cleveland 58-50 amidst a record-breaking 9-0 start to the season.

August 11, 2001: Sparks win a league-record and franchise-best 28 games and become the first WNBA team to go undefeated at home for an entire season, finishing 16-0 at STAPLES Center. The Sparks also top the league in points, defensive rebounds, total rebounds and assists per game.

August 27, 2001: Lisa Leslie becomes the first WNBA player to capture all three MVP awards (regular season, postseason and All-Star) in the same season, joining NBA greats Shaquille O'Neal, Michael Jordan and Willis Reed as the only professional basketball players to accomplish this feat. Sparks head coach Michael Cooper was also named WNBA Coach of the Year. Zheng also wins the Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award.

July 11, 2002: Lisa Leslie is awarded the Best WNBA Player ESPY at the ESPY Awards, which honor the year's best athletic performances.

July 22, 2002: Sparks Center Lisa Leslie becomes the first WNBA player to record 3,000 career points during the Sparks 92-84 victory over the Orlando Miracle at STAPLES Center. Leslie also records 24 points and 21 rebounds, tying the league record she set on June 19, 1998.

September 1, 2001: Sparks claim their first WNBA Championship to give the city a sweep of professional basketball titles, sweeping the Eastern Conference Champion Charlotte Sting in the WNBA Finals.

August 25, 2002: Sparks Guard Nikki Teasley finishes the year averaging 11.5 points, 6.3 assists, and 5.1 rebounds, becoming the first player in WNBA history to average more than 10 points, five assists, and five rebounds in a season.

August 29, 2002: Sparks rookie guard Nikki Teasley nails the game-winning shot in the waning seconds of Game 2 of the WNBA Finals to help the Sparks become the second team in WNBA history to repeat as champions, defeating the New York Liberty. Los Angeles runs through the postseason with a perfect 6-0 record as the first of just three teams to do so in league history (Seattle '10, Minnesota '13) and finish its back-to-back championship run with a 12-1 playoff record.

Sparks center Lisa Leslie earns Finals MVP honors for the second straight year.

After retiring in November 1999 to serve as the Sparks General Manager, Penny Toler becomes the fastest player-turned-manager in any men's or women's league to assemble a championship team (two years).

SPARKS TIMELINE

July 12, 2003: Sparks guard Nikki Teasley earns All-Star MVP honors with 10 points, six assists, six rebounds and five steals in the West's 84-75 victory in New York.

July 16, 2003: Lisa Leslie once again captures the "Best WNBA Player" ESPY, becoming the second two-time winner in the category.

July 30, 2003: Sparks Center Lisa Leslie becomes the first WNBA player to dunk in a game when she throws down a one-handed breakaway slam with 4:44 remaining in the first half of Los Angeles' 82-73 loss to the Miami Sol at STAPLES Center.

LOS ANGELES

July 29, 2004: Sparks center Lisa Leslie scores her 4,000th career point, becoming the first WNBA player to reach the milestone.

September 10, 2004: Sparks center Lisa Leslie records the WNBA's third triple-double, tying Margo Dydek's record for blocked shots in the process as her 29 points, 15 rebounds and 10 blocked shots leads the Sparks to an 81-63 victory over the Detroit Shock.

September 28, 2004: The Sparks continue their impressive streak of playoff appearances by making it to postseason play for the sixth straight year with a 25-9 regular season record. The run of Western Conference Championships ends, however, with a first-round loss to the Sacramento Monarchs.

September 16, 2003: The Sparks win the Western Conference Championship and reach the WNBA Finals for the third consecutive year despite an injury-riddled season. The deciding Game 3 versus the Detroit Shock at The Palace of Auburn Hills proved to be a historic event as it was played before the largest crowd in WNBA history--22,076. The Shock's victory was sealed by Deanna Nolan's three-point basket with 53 seconds remaining and perfect free-throw shooting down the stretch.

2004

October 9, 2004: Lisa Leslie captures the 2004 WNBA MVP Award, leading the league in rebounds per game and finishing third in scoring. Leslie and teammate Nikki Teasley each receive All-WNBA recognition.

SPARKS TIMELINE

March 25, 2005: Sparks trade forward DeLisha Milton-Jones to the Washington Mystics for Chamique Holdsclaw.

July 9, 2005: Sparks veteran Lisa Leslie continues to impress fans in Los Angeles with her 15.2 points per game and 71 total blocked shots. A 2005 All-Star, Leslie makes history as the first player to dunk in a WNBA All-Star game.

June 14, 2006: Lisa Leslie is named to the WNBA's All-Decade Team, a group of the league's 10 best and most influential players from its first 10 years.

June 26, 2006: Lisa Leslie becomes the first player in WNBA history to score 5,000 points.

July 5, 2006: In a historic presentation, Penny Toler's decade of involvement with the Sparks as an exceptional player and dedicated General Manager are recognized when her No. 11 jersey is retired during a Sparks game, marking the first female jersey to be retired at STAPLES Center.

July 7, 2006: Leslie's illustrious career is honored in an on-court celebration in which then-team president Johnny Buss dedicates the court to the record-breaking center, renaming it "Lisa Leslie Court".

August 26, 2006: With Coach Bryant at the helm, the 2006 Sparks boast a 25-9 regular season record and come back to beat the Seattle Storm after falling behind 1-0 in the Western Conference Semifinals. The Sparks conclude the 2006 season when they are defeated at the Honda Center by the Sacramento Monarchs, who go on to win the WNBA title.

September 2, 2005: With 13 wins and 16 losses under head coach Henry Bibby, assistant coach Joe "Jellybean" Bryant takes over for the final five games (4-1), allowing the team to finish squarely at .500 (17-17). With a perfectly split record, the Sparks catch a glimpse of the postseason but their tireless efforts are outmatched by the Monarchs for the second straight year.

September 3, 2006: Leslie is named WNBA Most Valuable Player for the third time. Over the course of the season, she earns four Player of the Week awards, weeks: 5/30, 6/19, 6/26 and 7/17.

December 7, 2006: WNBA approves the sale of the Los Angeles Sparks from the Lakers to Katherine Goodman and Carla Christofferson. Sparks season ticket holders themselves, Christofferson and Goodman focus on connecting fans through fun and engaging experiences at STAPLES Center. The Sparks become one of six WNBA teams to be owned and operated independently of NBA teams.

December 10, 2006: Lisa Leslie announces that she will take 2007 off to have her first child, Lauren.

Australian native Elizabeth Cambage, selected second by the Tulsa Shock, and Courtney Vander-sloot, tapped third by the Chicago Sky, rounded out the top three picks.

April 21, 2011: Laurel J. Richie, a veteran of more than three decades in consumer marketing, corporate branding, public relations and corporate management, is appointed President of the WNBA, NBA Commissioner David Stern announced. Laurel leaves her post as Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer for Girl Scouts of the USA to join the WNBA.

June 21, 2011: The Los Angeles Sparks host the New York Liberty at STAPLES Center in the WNBA's 15th Anniversary Game, played 15 years to the day of the league's inaugural matchup between the same two teams in LA. The Sparks won 96-91.

July 23, 2011: In honor of the WNBA's 15th season, the league unveiled its "Top 15 Players of All Time" during a halftime ceremony live on ABC at the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game presented by adidas. With consideration given to on-court performance and ability, leadership, sportsmanship, and community service, as well as to contributions to team success and women's basketball, voting was conducted by fans, select national and WNBA-market media, and by current players and coaches. The players named were: Sue Bird, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Yolanda Griffith, Becky Hammon, Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie, Ticha Penicheiro, Cappie Pondexter, Katie Smith, Dawn Staley, Sheryl Swoopes, Diana Taurasi, Tina Thompson, and Teresa Weatherspoon.

August 9, 2011: In a road game at the Phoenix Mercury, Minnesota Lynx all-stars Lindsay Whalen and Seimone Augustus become the 35th and 36th players to surpass the 3,000-point mark for their respective careers, but the first pair of teammates to eclipse the mark in the same game. In the process, Augustus also tied the Mercury's Diana Taurasi as the fastest player in WNBA history to reach 3,000 (151 games).

August 22, 2011: The WNBA and Boost Mobile, an industry leader in no-contract wireless service, announced a landmark multiyear marketing partnership that made Boost Mobile the first league-wide marquee partner of the WNBA. As part of the deal, the Boost Mobile brand logo was subsequently featured on the front of the game jerseys of 10 of the WNBA's 12 teams. It marked the first time the WNBA had a league partner with jersey branding for multiple teams throughout the season other than adidas, the league's official outfitter.

October 2, 2011: Despite falling to the host Minnesota Lynx in Game 1 of the WNBA Finals, Atlanta Dream forward Angel McCoughtry set Finals records for points in a quarter (19 in the third), points in a half (27 in the second), and consecutive points (14 from late in the first half into the third quarter).

October 5, 2011: The Atlanta Dream's Angel McCoughtry surpasses the WNBA Finals record (set by her in 2010) for most points in a single game with 38 in a loss to the host Minnesota Lynx.

October 7, 2011: In a celebration of its 15th season, the WNBA and partner Boost Mobile unveiled the Top 15 Moments in league history as voted by fans. The top moment was Teresa Weather-spoon's half-court shot at the buzzer to win Game 2 of the 1999 WNBA Finals for the New York Liberty and send that series to a decisive third game. Ranking second was the WNBA's first ever game (NY Liberty at LA Sparks, June 21, 1997); third was Sparks' center Lisa Leslie throwing down the first dunk in WNBA history in the first half of a game vs. the Miami Sol.

October 7, 2011: The Minnesota Lynx captured their first WNBA title with a 73-67 win over the Atlanta Dream. Lynx guard/forward Seimone Augustus was named Finals MVP after leading the Lynx to a sweep in the best-of-five series. Augustus posted 22 points and seven assists in Game 1 and had a franchise-playoff record 36 points in Game

2, including 15 in the fourth quarter.

April 16, 2012: The 2012 WNBA Draft presented by Boost Mobile took place at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, CT, marking the second straight year that the draft was held on the campus of the league's broadcast partner. Stanford's Nnemkadi Ogumike (Sparks), Tennessee's Shekinna Stricklen (Storm), Notre Dame's Devereaux Peters (Lynx), Tennessee's Glory Johnson (Shock), and Miami's Shenise Johnson (Silver Stars) were the top five picks.

June 3, 2012: Angel McCoughtry of the Atlanta Dream sets the WNBA's single-game mark for most successful free throws without a miss, going 17-for-17 vs. Chicago.

June 15, 2012: With a win over Phoenix on June 15, the defending champion Minnesota Lynx set a WNBA record for the best start to a season, going 10-0 out of the gate before being upended by Seattle.

June 16, 2012: Already the WNBA's career steals leader, Tamika Catchings also took over the top spot in league history for career free throws made when she hit 6-of-8 from the charity stripe against Chicago.

June 17, 2012: Connecticut's Tina Charles, with 23 points and 22 rebounds at Atlanta, became the first player in WNBA history to log three 20-20 games in a career.

July 14-Aug. 15, 2012: The WNBA temporarily stops play to give players the opportunity to compete in the 2012 Olympic Games in London. The U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team - comprised of 12 WNBA players - defeated France in the gold medal game. The win gave the United States women their fifth consecutive Olympic gold medal and, dating back to the bronze medal game in 1992, stretched the team's winning streak to 41 games.

Sept. 18, 2012: Already the WNBA's all-time leading scorer, Tina Thompson (Seattle) became the first player in the history of the league to surpass 7,000 career points with her jump shot at the 9:03 mark of the second quarter of the Storm's victory over visiting Chicago at KeyArena. The milestone capped a season in which Thompson also became the first WNBA player to top 15,000 minutes played and 2,450 field goals made.

Aug. 28, 2012: A put-back basket against San Antonio by Minnesota Lynx center McWilliams-Franklin, moved the 14-year veteran and six-time All-Star into first place on the WNBA's career list for offensive rebounds, surpassing the 1,049 of Yolanda Griffith.

Sept. 22, 2012: Temeka Johnson of the Tulsa Shock finished the regular season with the league's best single-season mark in history for three-point FG percentage (.531, 34 of 64). On the same day, Ticha Penicheiro of the Chicago Sky plays the final game of her career and, with two assists, increases her WNBA career record to 2,599.

Sept. 26, 2012: The WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2013 WNBA Draft) was held for the first time at ESPN's studios in Bristol, Conn., live during the 6 p.m. ET edition of SportsCenter. The Phoenix Mercury ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Chicago Sky, Tulsa Shock, and Washington Mystics.

Oct. 21, 2012: Indiana defeated the defending champion Minnesota Lynx 3-games-to-1, giving the Fever its first WNBA championship in franchise history. Following Game 4, an 87-78 home win at Indianapolis' Bankers Life Fieldhouse, Indiana forward Tamika Catchings was named MVP of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile. Catchings, a three-time Olympic gold medalist and the league's 2011 MVP, averaged 22.3 points, six rebounds, and two steals during the Finals.

Dec. 13, 2012: Following the league's Board of Governor's Meeting, the WNBA announces it will implement new rules regarding flopping and defensive three-seconds, while also extending the three-point line from 20 feet, 6 1/4 inches to 22 feet, 1 3/4 inches, consistent with the distance inherent in all FIBA competitions. The rules will go into effect beginning with the 2013 season.

March 28, 2013: The WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership for another six years, paving the way for WNBA games to be televised on ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 through 2022. The announcement, made by John Skipper, President of ESPN, Inc. and Co-Chairman of the Disney Media Networks, and Laurel J. Richie, WNBA President, extends the WNBA's television relationship with ESPN to 26 years. With the deal, up to 30 live games will be televised on ABC, ESPN or ESPN2

each season, including exclusive telecasts of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile.

March 28, 2013: On the same day as the WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership, the league also introduced a new brand identity. The refreshed identity reflects how far the level of play has come in 16 years as stronger, more agile players have made the game more competitive. The cornerstone of the new WNBA visual identity is a more modern "Logowoman" -- the player silhouette within the logo -- that better embodies the athleticism and diversity of current WNBA players while leveraging the distinctive orange-and-oatmeal color scheme of the league's iconic game ball.

April 15, 2013: For the first time in the WNBA's 17 seasons, the league's Draft is televised live in primetime. The 2013 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm takes place for the third straight year at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn., this time airing live at 8 p.m. ET on ESPN2. One of the most anticipated draft classes in league history is led by the "3 to See" -- Brittney Griner of Baylor, Elena Delle Donne of Delaware, and Skylar Diggins of Notre Dame. The Phoenix Mercury selected Griner with the No. 1 overall pick; the Chicago Sky then took Delle Donne with the No. 2 selection, and the Tulsa Shock claimed Diggins third.

May 27, 2013: While the WNBA's 17th season officially tipped off on May 24, it was a May 27 Memorial Day TV double-header on ESPN2 that introduced the "3 to See" -- Phoenix center Brittney Griner, Chicago guard/forward Elena Delle Donne, and Tulsa guard Skylar Diggins -- to WNBA fans. Griner, Delle Donne, and Diggins, the first, second, and third overall draft picks in the 2013 Draft, were the featured players as Tulsa first hosted the Washington Mystics and Phoenix then hosted Chicago.

May 27, 2013: Brittney Griner, the No. 1 overall pick in the 2013 Draft, registered two dunks in her very first game, becoming the first WNBA player ever to dunk multiple times in the same game.

June 8, 2013: The WNBA becomes the first U.S. professional basketball league to implement "Ref Cam" as part of a game telecast. A wireless, HD, mini point-of-view camera positioned at eye-level on game official Lamont Simpson. "Ref Cam" allowed viewers to virtually be on the court when Indiana hosted Phoenix during a live ABC broadcast.

July 6, 2013: Mike Thibault moved ahead of Van Chancellor to become the head coach with the most regular-season victories in WNBA history. Thibault reached the milestone with the Washington Mystics' 62-59 win over the Seattle Storm. The win was Thibault's 212th regular-season victory as a WNBA head coach.

July 27, 2013: The Los Angeles Sparks' Candace Parker was crowned MVP of the 2013 Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star Game after setting an All-Star Game record with 23 points, topping the mark of 22 set by Swin Cash in 2009. Parker shot 10-for-13 from the field and chipped in 11 rebounds. Leading into the All-Star Game, the Chicago Sky's Elena Delle Donne became the first rookie ever to lead all vote-getters for the event.

August 18, 2013: Chicago's Sylvia Fowles became the first player in league history to post two 20-20 games in the same season. Fowles, who scored 20 points and added 21 rebounds vs. Connecticut on this date, had previously posted 24 points and 22 rebounds vs. Connecticut on May 31.

September 8, 2013: Second-year guard Riquana Williams sets a WNBA single-game scoring record with 51 points in the Tulsa Shock's win at San Antonio. The 51-point effort surpassed the previous mark of 47 set by Phoenix's Diana Taurasi in 2006 and Seattle's Lauren Jackson in 2007.

September 15, 2013: Guard Katie Smith, a veteran of 15 WNBA seasons and a seven-time WNBA All-Star, finishes her illustrious career ranked No. 1 in league history in three-point shots made (906); second in total points (6,452, trailing only Tina Thompson) and minutes played (15,725); fourth in free throws made (1,440); and fifth in field goals made (2,053).

September 22, 2013: Forward Tina Thompson, the only player to play in each of the WNBA's first 17 seasons, plays her final game as Seattle is eliminated from the playoffs by Minnesota in the Western Conference Semifinals. The nine-time WNBA All-Star selection ended her career ranked as the league's all-time leader in points (7,488), field goals made (2,630), and minutes played (16,088); second in free throws made (1,480) and total rebounds (3,070); and fourth in three-point field goals made (748).

October 10, 2013: After advancing to the WNBA Finals for the third consecutive season, the Western Conference champion Minnesota Lynx toppled the Atlanta Dream 3-games-to-0, giving Minnesota its second WNBA title in franchise history and its second crown in a three-year span. Following an 86-77 Game 3 victory at Gwinnett Arena in suburban Atlanta, Lynx forward Maya Moore, the runner-up for the regular-season MVP award, was named the MVP of the Finals. The Georgia native averaged 20 points, six rebounds, and over two assists during the Finals series.

December 10, 2013: The 13th annual WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2014 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm) was conducted in a televised event live on ESPN during SportsCenter for the second straight year. The Connecticut Sun, which had 442 chances out of 1,000 to receive the first overall selection, the most of any of the four teams in the lottery mix, ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Tulsa Shock, San Antonio Silver Stars, and New York Liberty.

January 14, 2014: The WNBA's San Antonio franchise officially changes its nickname from Silver Stars to Stars.

February 5, 2014: The WNBA and NBA Board of Governors unanimously approved the purchase of the Los Angeles Sparks by an investment group led by Earvin "Magic" Johnson and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Mark R. Walter. The investment group includes Dodger co-owners Todd L. Boehly, Robert L. Patton, and Stan Kasten.

March 7, 2014: The Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) and the Women's National Basketball Players Association (WNBPA) entered into a new eight-year collective bargaining agreement, commencing with the 2014 season and continuing through 2021. The new collective bargaining agreement includes an additional 12th roster spot, salary cap increases and reduced revenue sharing thresholds, making it more likely that the players will share in league revenue growth. In addition, a new "Time Off Bonus" (up to $50,000 per team) can be earned by a player who limits the amount of time she will play professional basketball (and/or play for a national team) during the off-season.

April 14, 2014: The 2014 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm is televised live in primetime by ESPN2 from the floor of the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. Chiney Ogwumike of Stanford University is selected No. 1 overall by the Connecticut Sun and, in the process, makes history. Ogwumike and her older sister, Nneka – the No. 1 overall pick in the 2012 Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks – join NFL stars Peyton and Eli Manning as the only siblings selected with the top pick in a North American professional sports league draft. The Tulsa Shock made Baylor University's Odyssey Sims the No. 2 overall pick and the San Antonio Stars claim Notre Dame's Kayla McBride third.

July 19, 2014: Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star 2014 takes place at US Airways Center, marking the second time the All-Star event takes place in Phoenix. The first WNBA All-Star game to go into overtime is won by the East, 125-124, after the Indiana Fever's Tamika Catchings grabs a defensive rebound and dribbles the length of the floor to score the game-winning layup with 6.9 seconds to play in OT. Atlanta Dream guard Shoni Schimmel, who had been voted into the game as a starter by fans, lives up to her nickname, "Showtime Shoni," and becomes the first rookie ever to earn the All-Star game MVP award. Schimmel set All-Star records for points (29), made field goals (11), and made three-point field goals (7). Like Schimmel, Minnesota's Maya Moore (24 points) and Tulsa's Skylar Diggins (27 points) also surpassed the previous record for points in an All-Star game (23 by Los Angeles' Candace Parker in 2013).

Aug. 5, 2014: The NBA's San Antonio Spurs announce they are hiring WNBA all-star guard Becky Hammon as an assistant coach under head coach Gregg Popovich. Hammon, then of the WNBA's San Antonio Stars and in the midst of her 16th season as a WNBA player, becomes the first full-time, paid female assistant coach in NBA history.

Sept. 12, 2014: In the WNBA Finals, the Phoenix Mercury sweeps the Chicago Sky, 3-0, to win its third championship in franchise history. After taking the first two games of the best-of-five series at home by 21 and 29 points, respectively, the Mercury is led by guard Diana Taurasi, who scores 14 of her 24 points in the fourth quarter, and by forward Candice Dupree (24 points), as Phoenix edges host Chicago, 87-82, in Game 3. Taurasi, who is subsequently named Finals MVP for the second time in her career, breaks an 82-82 tie with an old-fashioned three-point play.

April 16, 2015: For the second straight year, the WNBA Draft presented by State Farm® is held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. With the No. 1 overall pick, the Seattle Storm makes Notre Dame guard and consensus All-American Jewell Loyd the first Fighting Irish player ever chosen with the top selection. The Tulsa Shock choose Sweden native Amanda Zahui B. of the University of Minnesota with the second overall selection, and the Storm uses its second pick in the top three on the University of Connecticut's Kaleena Mosqueda-Lewis. Loyd and Zahui B., each of whom leave college with eligibility remaining, enter the draft by virtue of turning 22 years of age during the 2015 calendar year.

June 24, 2015: Chicago's Elena Delle Donne scores a career-high 45 points in a win over Atlanta. Coupled with her 40-point effort at Tulsa on June 6, she becomes only the fourth player in league history with two 40-point games in the same season. Delle Donne would go on to be named the 2015 WNBA MVP presented by Samsung.

July 3, 2015: Becky Hammon, a former WNBA All-Star and current NBA assistant coach with the San Antonio Spurs, becomes the first female head coach in the NBA's Las Vegas Summer League when the Spurs announce she will guide their team. Seventeen days later, on July 20, Hammon leads the Spurs to the Summer League title, becoming the first female coach to win a Summer League title.

July 20, 2015: Tulsa Shock majority owner Bill Cameron announces plans to relocate the WNBA team to the Dallas-Fort Worth area, the fourth-largest metropolitan area in the U.S. Cameron asks the WNBA to submit the request to the Board of Governors for approval.

July 21, 2015: Atlanta Dream forward/guard Angel McCoughtry becomes the second-fastest player in WNBA history to reach the 4,000-point milestone, accomplishing the feat in her 206th game (only Diana Taurasi reached the plateau in fewer games – 197).

July 23, 2015: The WNBA Board of Governors unanimously approves the relocation of the Tulsa Shock to the Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan area. The team then finished the season in Tulsa, reaching the playoffs for the first time since relocating from Detroit prior to the 2010 season.

July 25, 2015: In a game featuring 10 first-time All-Stars, the Western Conference defeats the Eastern Conference, 117-112, in the Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star Game at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. Minnesota Lynx forward Maya Moore is named MVP, becoming just the second player (after Lisa Leslie) to win all three of All-Star Game MVP, WNBA MVP presented by Samsung (2014) and WNBA Finals MVP presented by Boost Mobile (2013). Moore scores an All-Star Game-record 30 points, surpassing the mark of 29 set by Atlanta's Shoni Schimmel in 2014). Indiana Fever forward Tamika Catchings – who enters the game as the career All-Star leader in minutes, made field goals, total rebounds and defensive rebounds – tallies eight points and moves ahead of Leslie as the all-time scoring leader in All-Star history. Catchings also moves into the top spot in WNBA AllStar Game history for the most selections (10) and most games played (9). Seattle guard Sue Bird, selected for the ninth time, plays in her eighth All-Star Game and moves into sole possession of second place in that category.

July 28, 2015: Indiana's Tamika Catchings passes Diana Taurasi (6,722) for second place on the WNBA's all-time regular-season points list.

July 31, 2015: Nancy Lieberman, a former WNBA player and head coach, becomes the second female hired as a full-time, paid NBA assistant coach when she joins the staff of the Sacramento Kings.

Aug. 2, 2015: Seattle Storm guard Sue Bird becomes the first player in WNBA history to amass 5,000 points and 2,000 assists. She is the 13th player to reach 5,000 points.

Sept. 24, 2015: The Seattle Storm wins the 15th annual WNBA Draft Lottery presented by State Farm® and earns the top pick in the 2016 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm®. The Lottery is conducted in a televised event at ESPN's headquarters in Bristol during halftime of Game 1 of the Western Conference Finals between the Phoenix Mercury and Minnesota Lynx on ESPN2. Seattle, which entered the Lottery with the most chances to land the top pick (442 out of 1,000), wins the drawing for the second time in a row. Five months earlier, Seattle had used the top pick in the 2015 Draft to select Notre Dame guard Jewell Loyd, who would become the 2015 WNBA Rookie of the Year presented by Samsung.

Oct. 10, 2015: In Game 3 of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile, Lynx forward Maya Moore hits one of the biggest shots in WNBA history, a game-winning three-pointer at the buzzer that gives Minnesota an 80-77 win for a 2-1 series edge. Moore's buzzer-beater is the latest in a WNBA Finals game since the New York Liberty's Teresa Weatherspoon hit a half-court buzzer-beater on Sept. 4, 1999 to win Game 2 of the WNBA Finals in Houston and send that series to a third and final game against the Comets.

Oct. 14, 2015: Led by center Sylvia Fowles, a midseason acquisition who would be named MVP of the 2015 WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile, the Minnesota Lynx topples the Indiana Fever in Game 5 of the best-of-five series. Minnesota wins its third title in five seasons (2011, 2013) behind head coach Cheryl Reeve and the team's core group of veteran All-Stars in Maya Moore, Seimone Augustus, Lindsay Whalen and Rebekkah Brunson. The Lynx clinches a title on its home court for the first time.

Nov. 2, 2015: In an event held at the University of Texas at Arlington, majority owner Bill Cameron announces that the Tulsa Shock, newly relocated to the Dallas Metroplex, will begin play in 2016 as the Dallas Wings.

Nov. 4, 2015: The WNBA announces that Laurel J. Richie, the third President in league history, will be leaving to pursue other interests, including serving as a board member of several for-profit and not-for-profit institutions. Richie ends a tenure that began on April 21, 2011.

Feb. 10, 2016: Lisa Borders is appointed by NBA Commissioner Adam Silver as the WNBA's fourth President. Borders brings more than 25 years of experience in operations, marketing, government relations and public service. At the time of the announcement, Borders was serving as Chair of The Coca-Cola Foundation and Vice President, Global Community Affairs at The Coca-Cola Company.

March 15, 2016: The WNBA and Verizon announced a new leaguewide marquee partnership, making the wireless provider the league's most prominent marketing partner. As the marquee partner of the WNBA, Verizon branding will be prominently displayed on the front of 10 WNBA team jerseys: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Dallas Wings, Indiana Fever, Los Angeles Sparks, Minnesota Lynx, New York Liberty, Phoenix Mercury, Seattle Storm and Washington Mystics.

April 14, 2016: The WNBA Draft presented by State Farm® is held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. The Seattle Storm holds the first overall pick in the draft for the second consecutive year and selects University of Connecticut All-American Breanna Stewart, the first player in NCAA Division I history to be named Most Outstanding Player of the Final Four four times. For the first time in the history of the WNBA Draft, three players from the same school are selected with the top three picks – UConn's Stewart, Moriah Jefferson (No. 2 by the San Antonio Stars), and Morgan Tuck (No. 3 by the Connecticut Sun).

May 9, 2016: The WNBA announces the launch of WNBA LEAGUE PASS, the new full-season, live-game out-of-market subscription package that will provide fans with access to SINGLE GAME and TEAM PASS options for the first time. The new live game service, formerly called WNBA LiveAccess, will be available through WNBA.com and the WNBA App on iOS and Android devices. For the first time, WNBA LEAGUE PASS will be available on Apple TV (4th generation) and Chromecast through the WNBA App, providing users additional ways to watch WNBA games.
